

Botulinum toxin in head & neck practice

12 January 2012, Queen Elizabeth Hospital, Birmingham

An essential course for practitioners using Botulinum toxin in head & neck patients

Highly recommended for ENT surgeons, OMF surgeons, neurologists, radiologists and SLTs

Topics to include

- Adductor and abductor spasmodic dysphonia
- Laryngospasm
- Oromandibular dystonia
- Cricopharyngeal injection
- Palatal myoclonus
- Frey's syndrome
- Drooling
- Cosmetic indications

Speakers

- Prof Adrian Williams (Birmingham)
- Mr Maurice Hawthorne (Middlesbrough)
- Mr David Proops (Birmingham)
- Mr Julian McGlashan (Nottingham)
- Mr Vindh Paleri (Newcastle)
- Mr John Rubin (London)
- Mr Shahram Anari (Birmingham)
- Dr Steve Colley (Birmingham)

Course organiser: Declan Costello (Birmingham)

For more information, please email info@voicedoctor.co.uk

Course fee: £95, to include meals and refreshments

6 CPD points (application pending)